A wise person once said, "God is always speaking, but few are listening." The sixteenth-century mystic, Ignatius of Loyola, urged Christians to "seek God everywhere." With that in mind, last Saturday, twelve of us went to the Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art to "seek God" and to listen to His voice through art. There were a lot of great insights and conversations shared within the group.

The quilt on the left was created by Barb Fischer and Joyce Cashier, and recently gifted to Nancy McBride.

Another of Barb and Joyce's creations is on the right.

Message Notes

Singing With The Whales

The natural world sings of God's glory and invites us to join in and worship. In this message series, we'll explore the ways God reveals His character, speaks truths into our lives, and draws us closer to Him through the wonders of creation. So, join us in "Singing With The Whales" as we deepen our appreciation of God's presence and discover the beauty of His voice in the world around us.

August 2: Singing With The Whales: Part 1 – God reveals Himself through creation.

August 9: Singing With The Whales: Part 2 – Pursue a relationship with God like your life depends on it.

August 16: Singing With The Whales: Part 3 – God is pursuing us.

August 23: Singing With the Whales: Part 4 – Do all dogs (animals) go to heaven?
We will look at the hope-filled promises of God for the future.
